

DiFrancesco Bateman

Kunzman, Davis, Lehrer & Flaum, P.C.

Nicholas F. Pompelio

Contact:

npompelio@newjerseylaw.net
(908) 757-7800 ext. 112

Assistant:

Janet Gonzalez
jgonzalez@newjerseylaw.net

Undergraduate

Saint Joseph's University, B.S., 2004

Graduate

New England School of Law, J.D., 2008

Admissions

New Jersey, 2008
Federal District Court of New Jersey

Practice Areas

Business Law & Transactions
Commercial Litigation
Crime Victims Civil Litigation
Litigation
Municipal Court
Municipal Tax Appeals
Personal Injury Litigation
Wills, Trusts & Estates and Tax Planning

Nicholas F. Pompelio has a multifaceted practice, focusing primarily on the needs of plaintiffs, particularly in matters concerning personal injury, wrongful death and civil litigation. He has also prosecuted and defended municipal matters.

While studying at New England School of Law, Nicholas F. Pompelio lived in the Czech Republic and studied international criminal and environmental law at Charles University in Prague. Also while in law school, he participated as a member of the New England Law Review, focusing his research and writing on the relation between contract theories and modern business practices.

Following graduation, Nicholas F. Pompelio served as the judicial law clerk to the Honorable Thomas J. Critchley, Jr., J.S.C. at the Morris County Superior Court, where he assisted several Superior Court judges and conducted mediations in the areas of juvenile, family and civil law. Prior to joining DiFrancesco Bateman, Nicholas F. Pompelio was an associate attorney of Pompelio, Foreman & Gray, LLC.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS / AWARDS

New Jersey Monthly 2014, Selected as one of New Jersey's Outstanding Young Lawyers

Super Lawyers 2014 New Jersey Rising Stars

PUBLICATIONS

"Restitution in Favor of the Party-in-Breach: Contract Law in Massachusetts Remains a Breeding Ground for Unjust Enrichment," 43, New Eng. Law Review (2009)