Business Law & Transactions

Many businesses regard DiFrancesco Bateman as a virtual partner in their venture as we provide them advice to help them achieve success by navigating through potential obstacles in the legal aspects of today's business environment.

Our commercial law attorneys have substantial experience in the creation and counseling of enterprises, both private and public, including corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, sole proprietorships and public utilities. We provide sound and insightful advice to management concerning a wide array of business and corporate decisions and the legal implications of planned actions.

DiFrancesco Bateman attorneys are experienced in the preparation of a variety of corporate documents and commercial business agreements. We provide advice to our clients and advocate for our clients' interests in all stages of contract negotiations, in all aspects of financing. DiFrancesco Bateman provides many in-depth services to our business clients, including negotiation and preparation of agreements, real estate and equipment leases, contracts for suppliers and consumers, and joint ventures. We also assist our commercial clients in the negotiation of various types of financing relationships with banks and commercial lenders, including financing of equipment, real estate, lines of credit, accounts receivable and inventory.

In many cases, we are able to avoid costly litigation through sound counseling and effective negotiation; however, where matters require litigation, our transactional lawyers work in concert with our experienced commercial litigators to advocate for our clients' interest, providing thorough and innovative representation to clients in the state and federal courts and in arbitration in all types of commercial matters.
